

LEGACY GIVING

Planned giving allows you to support the ministries you love while continuing to care for your family and loved ones.

Leaving Your Mark

- Planned giving lets you make generosity part of your legacy.
- A plan for legacy giving can help your family carry your values forward.
- A gift to your church can be a thoughtful way to support its future while at the same time preserving assets for loved ones.
- Legacy giving can help sustain the ministry and outreach of your church or organization for generations to come.
- Planning a legacy gift allows you to make a lasting gift without affecting your current financial needs.

Ways to Give

- You can gift cash, stocks, bonds, and mutual funds to your parish.
- You can set up retirement distributions to go directly to your church or organization.
- You can start setting aside funds now by utilizing a Donor Advised Fund, and decide later which ministries and charities you'd like to support.
- You can name a church or organization as a beneficiary in your will, trust, or financial accounts.
